

Marysville Friends of the Arts
Art Scholarship
In Memory of Gayle Pope

Gayle Pope remains a favorite person in Marysville. Her Degree from Detroit Commercial College led to spending a varied professional career in the automotive, hotel, merchandising and airline industries. The Latter allowed for world travels which led to an appreciation of fine art and craft. An avid art collector, Gayle always encouraged creativity in others, and used her talent to improve the efforts of whatever organizations Spending her retirement years in Marysville, Gayle served as a loyal volunteer for Art in the Park event as well as others for many years.

This scholarship is designed to recognize and encourage current Marysville High School students who are planning to continue their education in the arts. The education committee strongly encourages all art students to apply.
